

LUMEN Society

LUMEN Society is a non-profit organization that aims to raise awareness and break the stigma surrounding invisible illnesses. They provide financial assistance to high school graduates seeking higher education through their LUMEN Scholarship.

Students across Canada that have been impacted by an invisible illness directly or indirectly and are graduating high school in 2019 are eligible. LUMEN defines invisible illnesses as chronic health conditions that are not visibly apparent, including mental health issues, autoimmune diseases, learning disabilities, and neurological disorders. For further information on their organization, please visit: www.lumensociety.ca

LUMEN is offering 2 scholarships, of $1,000 each, to grade 12 students that have an invisible illness themselves or have someone in their life that has an invisible illness. The 2019-2020 school year application deadline is April 30th, 2019.

The application link can be found on their scholarship page provided below, and questions about the scholarship can be directed to lumensociety.ii@gmail.com.
