OVERVIEW:

The purpose of the Volunteer Awards Program is to recognize and honour individuals whose volunteer contributions to Cystic Fibrosis Canada and its local chapters made a significant impact on the lives of individuals with cystic fibrosis. These volunteers have demonstrated leadership and initiative while advancing the mission and vision of Cystic Fibrosis Canada.

- Unless stated otherwise in the award criteria, multiple awards may be given at the discretion of the awards committee;
- In certain cases, the awards committee may feel that a nomination is more suited in another award category and they may move the nomination to the more suited award category. This will be at the discretion of the Awards Committee.

ELIGIBILITY:

All nominees must have:

- demonstrated excellence and made a significant contribution to the mission and strategic directions of Cystic Fibrosis Canada while maintaining a high level of commitment to Cystic Fibrosis Canada's values (Excellence, Caring, Accountability, and Teamwork);
- been a model and inspiration for other volunteers in their dedication to Cystic Fibrosis Canada's mission to End CF;
- advised, trained or coached others in such a way that motivates other volunteers to excel;
- demonstrated leadership and transparency in their volunteer contributions; and
- served the organization in a purely voluntary capacity.
